2026.11.9.

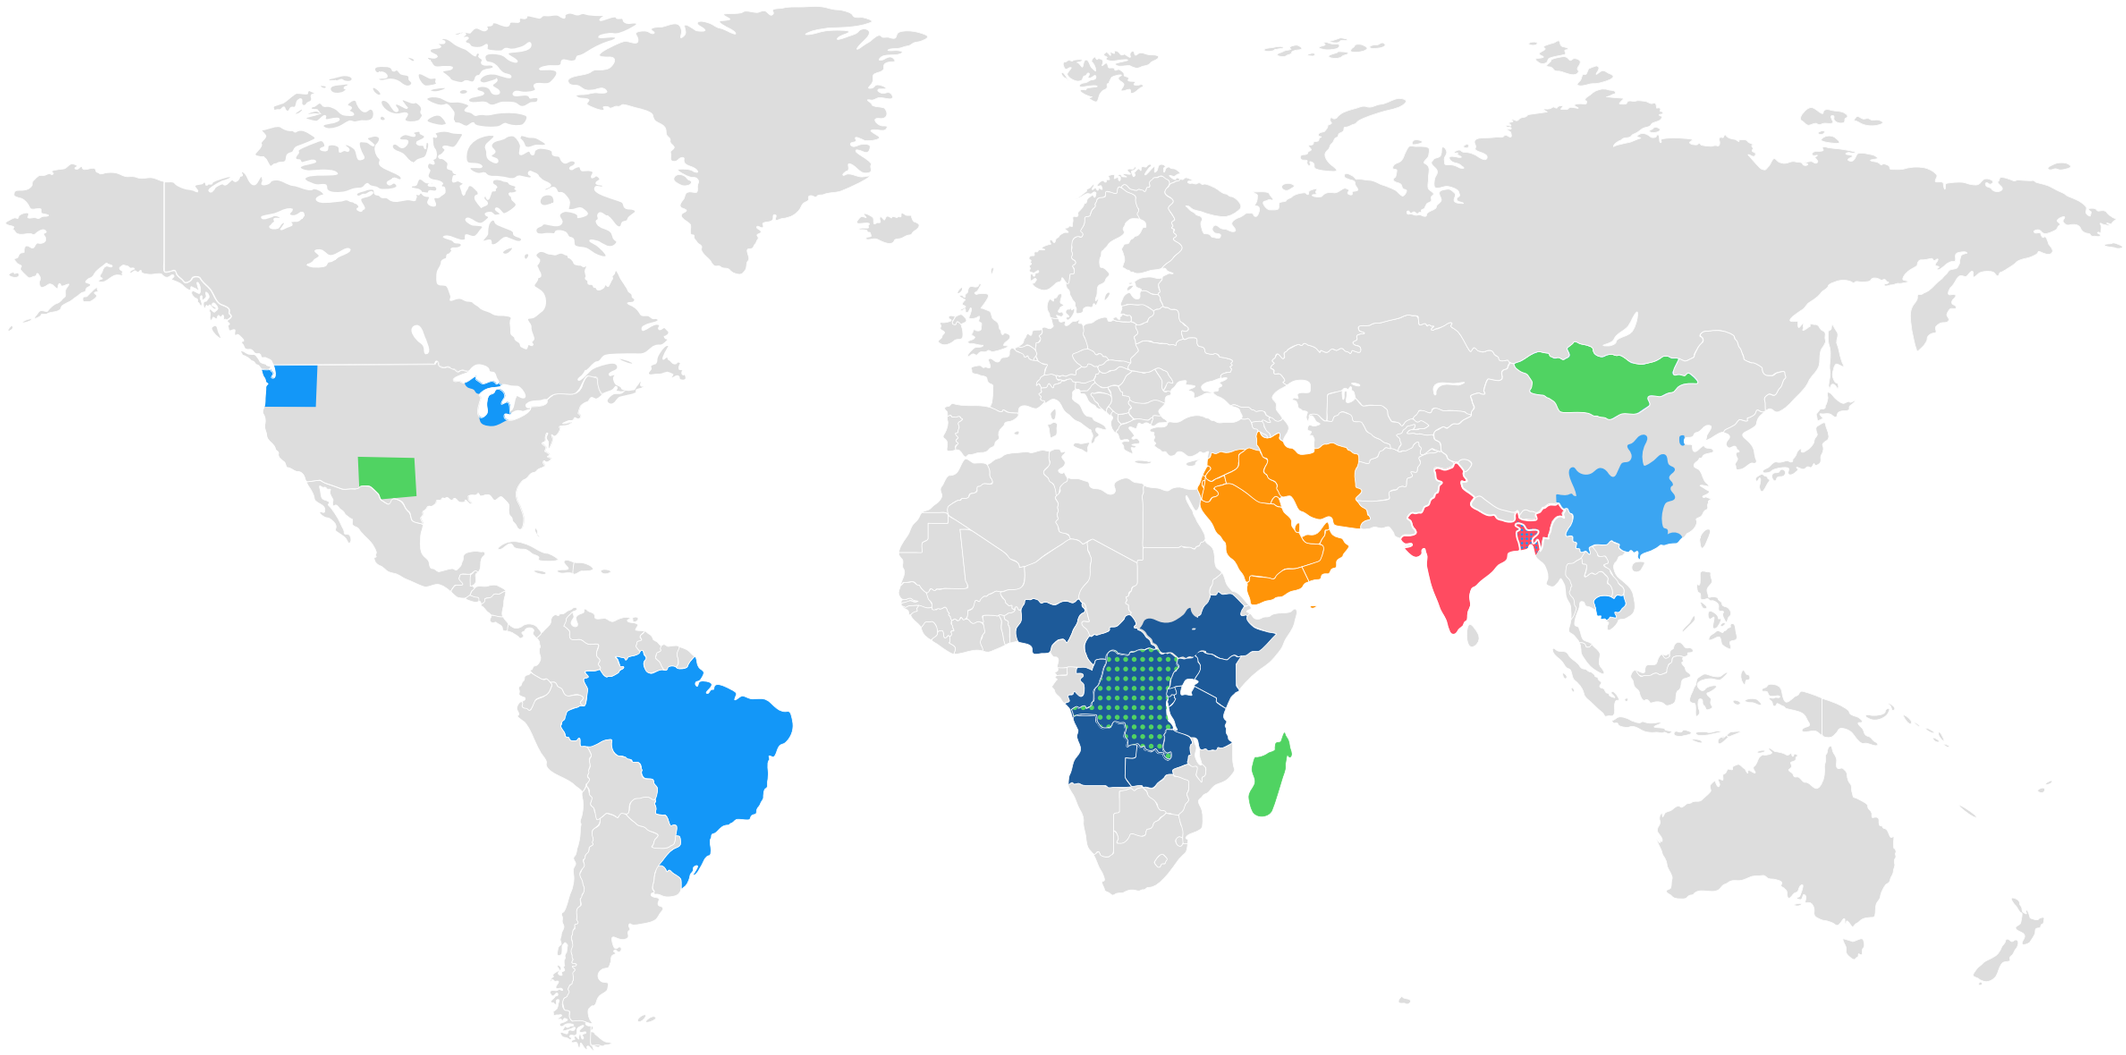

질병관리청 KDCA

Fourth Quarter

Strict Quarantine Inspection Area Information

What is a Strict Quarantine Inspection Area?

A Strict Quarantine Inspection Area refers to a designated area among quarantine inspection areas where highly fatal and contagious quarantinable infectious diseases are present, requiring intensive quarantine inspections.

Human Infection with Avian Influenza

United States (Michigan, Washington), Bangladesh, Brazil,

China (Guangdong, Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region, Sichuan Province, Anhui Province, Yunnan Province, Jiangxi Province, Jiangsu Province, Tianjin, Hunan, Hubei), Cambodia

Middle East Respiratory Syndrome (MERS)

Lebanon, Bahrain, Saudi Arabia, Syria,
United Arab Emirates, Yemen, Oman,
Jordan, Iraq, Iran, Israel, Qatar, Kuwait

Ebola Virus Disease (EVD)

South Sudan, Rwanda, Burundi, Angola,
Ethiopia, Uganda, Zambia, Tanzania, Kenya
Central African Republic, Republic of the Congo,
Democratic Republic of the Congo, Nigeria

Nipah Virus Infection

Bangladesh, India

Plague

Democratic Republic of the Congo, Mongolia,
Madagascar, United States (New Mexico)

- ['26.11.9.~12.31.] A total of 34 countries have been designated as Strict Quarantine Inspection Areas.
- According to Article 12-2 of the Quarantine Act (Obligation to File a Report and Measures), those who have stayed in or transited through Strict Quarantine Inspection Areas are required to submit their Q-CODE.
- For more information, please refer to the KDCA website (visit https://www.kdca.go.kr/ > News Room > Notice).